CTS College or in certain instances third parties such as our transnational programme bodies including but not limited to Association of Business Executives, University of Hertfordshire, University of Bedfordshire and Australian Institute of Business, may require that you provide your personal information and may collect all or a subset of the following information depending on your point of activity such as:

- 1.1 Name
- 1.2 Address
- 1.3 Email Address
- 1.4 Contact Numbers
- 1.5 Date of Birth
- 1.6 Credit Card Details
- 1.7 Emergency Contacts

2. Information automatically gathered

CTS College's website, like most websites on the Internet, tracks web browsing patterns to inform understanding of how our sites are being navigated and used. This generic information is collected through the use of "cookies," cookies are text files generated to allow us to analyze usage patterns so that we can improve both content and distribution. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser; however, doing so may prevent you from using the full functionality of all of our websites. The generic information we collect is based on IP address, which is the location of a computer or network, and is not linked to your specific email address in any of the prior information compiled by CTS College. Additionally, some webpages of CTS College's website use Google Analytics, a service provided by Google, Inc. Google Analytics uses cookies similar to our website to help us better analyze how users use our webpages. Google uses this information for evaluating your use of our website, compiles reports on website activity and provides other services relating to webpage usage. Google may transfer this information to third parties if required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf.
